TO ORGANIZE ARCHAEOLOGY SCHOOL IN OPOLE

WILL BE INTERUNIVERSITY SCHOOL -- Nowiny Opolskie, No 36, 2 Oct 49

Dr Alexander Gieyszto, professor at Warsaw University, Dr Zdzislaw Rajewski, director of the Archaeological Museum in Warsaw and for many years director of excavations in Biskupin, and Dr Kazimierz Majewski, professor at the University of Wroclaw, members of the Chief Research Board on the Origin of Poland, recently visited the area of the Opole archaeological excavations in Ostrowek.

Excavations in Opole have been in progress for the past 2 years under the expansive program of archaeological research throughout Poland associated with the approaching anniversary, in 1965, of the 1,000th year of Poland's existence. The purpose of the excavation is to prepare a new study on Poland's origin, based on scientific study and historical data.

The members of the board were greatly impressed with the excellent scientific and technical organization of the expedition and, as a result, decided to organize a permanent Interuniversity School in Opole which will give practical training to the students of archaeological departments of all universities.

TO ORGANIZE MARINE TRAINING COURSES -- Wola Luda, No 14, 11 Dec 49

In mid-December 1949, powiat headquarters of Service to Poland will start organizing special preparatory courses for enrollment in the marine services or in naval schools of the Ministry of Navigation.

The courses will also be open to girls who intend to continue their studies at the School of Shipbuilding of the Gdansk Polytechnicum or the Graduate School of Maritime Commerce, or who wish to prepare for teaching and active participation in the sport of navigation.
